This book is an excellent introductory read on our eight-legged fellows; it covers aspects of biology, mythology, and popular sentiment to paint a fascinating picture of spiders. Personally, I'm not the biggest fan of the little beasties.

This Book Is Full of Spiders by David Wong Goodreads

This Book Is Full of Spiders is an interesting book for many reasons. The poignant and deceptively hilarious narrative is full of provoking ideas and is not at all scared of showing them to you, often alongside descriptions of graphic violence and male nudity. For that reason alone it would be a good book, but there is always more to it.

This Book Is Full of Spiders Seriously Dude Don't Touch

The book has some truly terrifying imagery that will satisfy your horror bent; but before you can ever get too entirely grossed out, you'll be giggling at sophomoric counter-humor. And yes, this book is full of spiders. FULL. Not even regular scary earth spiders; these are creepy horror story spiders that have tongues. Gross piled on top of horrific. I can't stand spiders, and the whole first quarter of the book made my skin crawl.
