My suggestion is to exclude sex when considering physical touch as a love language. Regard love-making as something necessary in addition to speaking his primary love language. And of course, the more you learn each other's love language, the fuller your love-tanks will be, and the better will be the sex.

The 5 Love Languages Book Review

If you are meeting people's primary love language their love tank will fill up and it will help them to feel loved. If a spouse fails to meet their partner's primary love language, it might leave their Love Tank empty, which can lead to the feeling unloved and it often creates further problems in the relationship. The 5 love languages: 1.
