A Book of Myths Wikisource the free online library

This book, with its Preface, was completed in 1914 "Before the War." Since August 1914 the finest humanity of our race has been enduring Promethean agonies. But even as Prometheus unflinchingly bore the cruelties of pain, of heat and of cold, of hunger and of thirst, and the tortures inflicted by an obscene bird of prey, so have endured the men of our nation and of those nations with whom we are proud to be allied.

The Book of Myths in Diving into the Wreck Shmoop

Myths can be ancient and valuable tales passed down in a culture. They can also just be lies, made up stories, as in: "Oh that's just a myth." At first we don't get many clues about this book. We are left to think about the image as we read the rest of the poem.
