So, now I have finished Behind the Beautiful Forever's. and I must say, unlike the bulk of people who have read it, I still have issues with it. I would have infinitely preferred it if the author written a straightforward novel, based on her research, and friendships made in the Annawadi slum in Mumbai.

Summary and book reviews of Behind the Beautiful Forever's

I couldn't put Behind the Beautiful Forever's down even when I wanted to - when the misery, abuse and filth that Boo so elegantly and understatedly describes became almost overwhelming. Her book, situated in a slum on the edge of Mumbai's international airport, is one of the most powerful indictments of economic inequality I've ever read.
