This book about The Third Reich is the winner of a prize for non-fiction in 2001. On the back cover it has several praising words from reviewers. In my opinion it is a book written by an expert for experts. Unless you have a really deep knowledge to the subject this book will not be usefull for you. The text is not very clear and there are many informations which presuppose a very broad insight in the subject. If you want to learn more about The Third Reich I will recommend fx.
